

John Woelfel

President

Saunders Real Estate Corp.

JOHN WOELFEL has been named president of Saunders Real Estate Corp., Boston. He is a graduate of Bentley College in Waltham and is a 25 year professional in the New England business community. He joined Saunders in July 1983 as senior vice president of finance and administration and was promoted to executive vice president in 1987. In 1991, Woelfel earned the additional title of chief operating officer, a role he will continue to perform.

