

Real Estate Journal

THE LARGEST WEEKLY COMMERCIAL/INVESTMENT NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD

Matthew Zayotti Partner Keegan Werlin, LLP

Matthew Zayotti

Name: Matthew Zayotti

Title: Partner

Company: Keegan Werlin, LLP

Location: 265 Franklin St., Boston, MA

Birthplace and year: Boston, MA - 1967

Family: Wife, Kimberly; Children: a boy and a girl

College: Rollins College, BA, History; minor in Economics, Suffolk University, JD

First job in law or allied field: Bove & Charney, P.C., office assistant

What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? I specialize in civil litigation, including, but not limited to handling disputes arising out of business and real estate transactions. As a partner at Keegan Werlin LLP, I represent clients in all phases of a matter, including the provision of pre-litigation advice, prosecuting and/or defending lawsuits, and achieving resolution of the matter through dispositive court rulings, alternative dispute resolution procedures, settlement negotiations and/or trial.

Hobbies: Time with family, tennis, fishing, cooking

Favorite book: "Shogun" by James Clavell

Favorite movie: "Down by Law"

Person you admire most (outside of family): Charles Edmondson (college professor)

Key to success: Work hard and do your best, success will follow

If you had to choose another vocation what would it be? College professor