What do you do now and what are you planning for the future: I have been putting my experience and creativity to work with real estate clients since 1988 in New England and across the country. As president of Denenberg Realty Advisors, I work with a diverse group of investors, owners and tenants to locate the ideal property and optimize its value. I believe in bringing complex negotiations to a favorable conclusion for my clients. For the future, I would like to expand our brand nationally with several offices in key states.

Hobbies: Golf and basketfall

Favorite book: Read to my grandchildren "Oh, the Places You'll go!" by Dr. Seuss

Favorite movie: "Bridge on the River Kwai"

Person you most emulate (outside of family): Roger Volk, CPA - best friend

Key to success: Living by my expression that "Happiness is a way of traveling and not

Neil Denenberg
a destination."

If you were forced to choose another vocation, would would it be: Television producer/creator
