

FRANCISCO J. IGLESIAS

*FIRM: PERINI CORPORATION, FRAMINGHAM, MASS.
EDUCATION: UNIVERSITY OF MADRID, YALE LAW SCHOOL
HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL
BORN: JAEN, SPAIN 1930*

The Senior Vice President of Perini Land and Development Co., Francisco Iglesias, was born 37 years ago in Spain and is a graduate from the University of Madrid Law School with a Bachelor of Laws. He spent some time in France, Holland and England as a graduate student before coming to the United States on a Fulbright Scholarship to attend Yale Law School. After receiving his Master's degree he joined Perini Corporation's personnel training program in 1955. Subsequently, he spent three years in Spain with a construction joint venture. In 1958, he rejoined Perini and from 1960 - 1962, took a leave of absence to obtain his Master's degree in Business Administration from Harvard Business School, majoring in finance.

Upon graduation, Francisco accepted assignment with Perini Land and Development Company to serve as financial analyst and later as assistant to the president. In 1964, he was promoted to position of Vice President, and last week to Senior Vice President.

As Senior V.P., Francisco handles all New England properties. "We are becoming more active in New England with our Pawtucket urban renewal development and 2 Boston parcels, which we are currently considering. The firm is in the midst of one of the nation's largest UR developments - 2,000 apartment units and 500,000 sq. ft. of office space in San Francisco. Our future trend is definitely toward downtown projects and I look to Boston, Atlanta, Toronto, San Francisco and Palm Beach for the greatest potentials."

Married with four children, Francisco enjoys tennis, swimming and cooking, "Its the only way I can get a Spanish meal."
