
Personality Profile

The Seventh Anniversary of business will be celebrated on October 12, 1963 by Jack Conway, President of the Jack Conway & Co., Inc., Realtors, Route 3A, Cohasset. Jack is doing general brokerage and land development business in the South Shore Area. Prior to starting this business, he was Sales Manager for Martin Cerel, Realtor, in Natick. Previously, he was Boxing Editor and Sports Promotion Manager for the Boston Evening American, from 1948 to 1954. During that period, Jack covered 25 World Championship Bouts, including all of Rocky Marciano's fights. At one time in the early '50's, he was Comptroller of the Massasoit Greyhound Ass'n. at Raynham Park and travelled through Europe with Russ Murray buying racing dogs. Jack was educated at Boston College High and the University of Notre Dame. Presently, he has ten Sales Brokers, covering Hull, Hingham, Cohasset, Scituate, and Marshfield areas. His office is one of the most active in the general area with a large sales volume. The office operates with its own Mortgage Department and strongly believes in sales promotion. At the present time, Conway & Co., has a 36 passenger International Harvester Bus which is used every week to inspect listings in the brokerage area. The Bus trip is used as a mobile sales meeting. Jack is Massachusetts' State Chairman of Realtor Promotion and Public Relations, Director of the Quincy and South Shore Board of Real Estate, and Secretary of the Plymouth County Multiple Listing Service.

When queried about the reasons for the real estate boom on the South Shore, Mr. Conway gives major credit to the Southeast Expressway. "Where that road goes, so go the dollars," notes this active Realtor; and, from the looks of business activity generated by his office, a fair share must be going to Conway & Co., Inc.
