Intro to Construction Mgmt class to begin Sept. 24

Due to the success of the Gould Construction Institute/Wentworth's first Introduction to Construction Management class this summer, the class will be offered again beginning Sept. 24. In addition, a new GCI/Wentworth certificate program, in which students will earn Wentworth college credits, will commence in October.

For more information, contact GCI at 781-270-9990.
