Century Investment Co. adds three Springfield properties to portfolio

August 06, 2015 - Front Section

Century Investment Company has acquired three new buildings for $4.36 million, all located in West Springfield. The properties include:

- * 30 Capital Dr., an office building located off of Rte. 5, which is a fully occupied 15,000 s/f building with tenants including Market Mentors and Haselkorn, Inc., purchased for $1.525 million. The deal was completed with Bill Low, from NAI Plotkin representing the sellers.
- * 59 Interstate Dr., a 22,000 s/f building which has availability of 500-4000 s/f, great location and convenience to I-90 and I-91, purchased for $2.1 million. John Foley, from The Foley Company, represented the seller.
- * 85 Interstate Dr., a vacant 8,5000 s/f building with the ability to be leased by a single user or subdivided, purchased for $735,000. Brendan Greeley of RJ Greeley Company represented the sellers.

As all three buildings, and 45,000 s/f, get assimilated into the Century portfolio, numerous changes and upgrades are taking place, including new paving, landscaping, painting and interior updates. Century is excited for the opportunity to be able to build to suit for future tenants and continue to provide excellent service to all their tenants. These new buildings come on the tail end of Century's corporate office move to 181 Park Ave.

in West Springfield.
