Amenkowicz joins Franklin Savings Bank's commercial lending team

August 04, 2017 - Northern New England

Jacy Amenkowicz,
Franklin Savings Bank

Franklin, NH According to Franklin Savings Bank, Jacy Amenkowicz joined its commercial lending team. Amenkowicz will develop business relationships in the Merrimack area where the bank is building its eighth full-service office.

Amenkowicz offers substantial expertise in the areas of business development and commercial lending, meeting the needs of commercial customers in the southern region of the state over the past 12 years.

“We are pleased to have Jacy on board as part of our commercial lending team,” said Jim DuBois, SVP, senior loan officer. “Her experience and understanding of the business community in the southern region of the state will be instrumental in helping us meet the needs and expectations of our new commercial customers. Her pleasant demeanor and authenticity will serve her well in developing long-term relationships throughout the business community.

Amenkowicz has a B.S. in business management from Granite State College and is a graduate of the New England School of Financial Studies at Babson College and the Greater Nashua Leadership Program.
