“This deal had a lot of the things our client was looking for in its 1031 exchange, namely, great real estate, credit tenants, excellent demographics and an attractive financial package. By assuming the existing favorable financing, negotiating an extension of the interest-only period, and obtaining a revised tenant guarantee, this center perfectly matched our client’s 1031 criteria,” said Kandkhorov.

Abramov said, “Our team searched throughout the country to match our client’s need, and Milford Square fit the bill precisely.”
