

DBVW Architects begins design on 60,000 s/f Farm Fresh RI Food Hub - to be constructed in the Valley neighborhood.

September 14, 2018 - Rhode Island

Providence, RI Design is underway by DBVW Architects for the Farm Fresh RI Food Hub, a new building to be constructed in the Valley neighborhood.

This 60,000 s/f will house Farm Fresh RI operations with space for administration, shipping, food production, and a year-round farmer's market. The Food Hub will also provide flexible tenant spaces for RI-oriented food and agricultural business co-locators, and promote sustainability and good stewardship.
