Prieto Giokas of Granite Commercial Real Estate receives 40 Under Forty award

October 04, 2019 - Northern New England

Nashua, NH Megan Prieto Giokas, president of Granite Commercial Real Estate, was honored as a member of the inaugural class of The Telegraph of Nashua's "40 Under Forty" for her significant contributions to the community and outstanding leadership qualities. The "40 Under Forty" award recognizes the area's leaders and innovators in the business, healthcare, education and entrepreneurial communities.

Under Prieto Giokas, her high-performing commercial brokerage, development and logistics firm has achieved significant revenue growth each year and has used some of those earnings to donate to local charities and support community events. Prieto Giokas has participated in a weekly literature hour at The Moore Center, volunteered at the N.H. Food Bank and sponsored youth athletics.

Granite Commercial Real Estate recently became HUBZone certified to increase opportunities to further invest in the community of Nashua. Prieto Giokas is a sought-after speaker for commercial real estate events, attends industry events and pursues continuing education to improve herself and her business.
