The Metalios Group joins Houlihan Lawrence

October 18, 2019 - Connecticut

Greenwich, CT Houlihan Lawrence has added the Metalios Group to the company. The Metalios Group is led by Joy Kim Metalios, a leader across the real estate industry for her knowledge of the local markets and her enthusiasm for attracting and mentoring talent. Her team consists of herself and top producing agents who closed $78 million in sales in 2018.

“We are elated to welcome Joy and her powerful team to Houlihan Lawrence,” said David Haffenreffer, Greenwich and Sound Shore regional manager for Houlihan Lawrence. “Joy is known for her commitment to excellence and passion for the business. The addition of the Metalios Group further demonstrates Houlihan Lawrence’s reputation as the leader in the Greenwich market.”

“Joining Houlihan Lawrence and being supported by the market share and resources of the number one brokerage in Greenwich will be a tremendous benefit to my clients,” said Metalios. “We look forward to continuing our commitment of five star service for all of our clients. I am ecstatic to join this renowned firm and be a part of its incredible network of the top ranked agents in the business.”

For over 20 years, Metalios has successfully worked with sellers, buyers and real estate developers to achieve their real estate goals. Her deep understanding of the market along with her extensive knowledge in the fields of construction, renovations, remodeling and interior design make her an instrumental asset to Houlihan Lawrence. Metalios graduated from Columbia University with an engineering degree. She began selling real estate in 1994 for Prudential Douglas Elliman where she worked for a diverse array of clients from high profile celebrities to students looking for rentals. Metalios and her family have lived in Greenwich since 2007. The Metalios Group was most recently with William Raveis.
