DiPrete Engineering provides engineering and design services for new Tilted Barn Brewery in Exeter

February 14, 2020 - Rhode Island

Exeter, RI The Tilted Barn Brewery, a farm brewery, is expanding and building a second barn at its current site.

The new barn will be a New England-style post and beam barn and will be located on a hill overlooking the Christmas tree farm. There will be outdoor seating, a patio, and a lawn for guests.

DiPrete Engineering provided the site's engineering and design as well as all necessary permits.

The Tilted Barn plans its new barn to be up and running this summer.
