East Hartford, CT Jewett Construction partnered with Hoffman Auto Group, to construct their Porsche dealership. This 31,000 s/f facility will be one of four locations in the U.S. featuring Porsche's brand-new Generation 5 design once complete.

Setting a new standard for sustainability and innovation, the forthcoming dealership will boast LEED Certification, demonstrating the Hoffman Auto Group's commitment to environmental responsibility.

Its exterior will showcase a blend of aluminum, composite metal, and glass curtain wall. Inside, customers will be greeted by a showroom with high-end finishes, illuminated by a skylight.

The Hoffman Auto Group, known for its commitment to employees, customers, and the community, recognizes the need to create a facility that prioritizes car ownership experiences. This project represents the Hoffman Group's most substantial investment in its 102-year history.

"We could not be any more thrilled to partner with Hoffman Auto Group on their new Porsche facility," said Dan Ray, vice president of preconstruction & design of Jewett Construction. "Jewett Construction takes great pride in showcasing our design-build and construction management capabilities. With our extensive experience in constructing major automobile brand dealerships, we are honored to be selected for this prestigious Porsche project."

Jewett Construction hosted a groundbreaking ceremony in collaboration with Hoffman Porsche on May 22nd. The event, attended by mayor Michael Walsh, celebrated the commencement of this design-build project which promises to be an asset for the community.
