Aho named broker of the year at O'Brien Commercial Properties

October 29, 2009 - Front Section

Joel Aho has taken the esteemed title of "Broker of the Year" at O'Brien Commercial Properties. His consistent monthly sales volume is a testimony to his dedication to his client's objectives. In addition to steady leasing volume throughout the first three quarters of this year, Aho successfully sold five buildings and has several more currently in play. A graduate of Babson College, Aho is a six-year veteran in the commercial and industrial real estate industry and has been recently promoted to vice president at O'Brien Commercial.
