Gold of Levey Miller Maretz leases 1,300 s/f at Amity Road Plaza

November 17, 2009 - Connecticut

What's Old is New, a consignment shop for children and adults, has recently opened at 214 Amity Rd. Tanya Uhelski, the owner of What's Old is New decided the current economy presented the perfect opportunity to open her store after 14 years in the corporate world of AT&T.

Uhelski entered into a lease with Pete Parente, Ken Kreiger and Dave Kinney, the principals of PKD, LLC for approximately 1,300 s/f at the Amity Road Plaza.

Josh Gold of Levey Miller Maretz Commercial Realtors represented What's Old is New and PKD, LLC.
