Stevens of The Stevens Group represents Barr Associates in 47,780 s/f lease

December 01, 2009 - Front Section

Barr Associates has renewed their lease at 300 Potash Hill Rd. The 47,780 s/f lease was extended for an additional 7 year term. Barr has occupied the single-level office/flex building since 1999. In addition to this location, Barr also owns and occupies two other buildings in Westford, Mass. totaling 75,000 s/f

Barr Associates is an independent manufacturer of precision thin film coatings and optical filters, and has an unmatched heritage in the optical filter and coating business providing solutions and parts for some of the most challenging requirements. Barr services the leading players and innovators in virtually every major market where optical filters or thin film coatings are enabling technologies or components.

Mark Stevens, principal of The Stevens Group, represented Barr in the transaction, providing real estate advisory services and assisting them in negotiating the lease extension. The landlord, Franklin Equities LLC, represented themselves.
