Alberghini of the Planning Office for Urban Affairs, Inc. is a recipient of the National Housing & Rehabilitation Association's Vision Awards

December 22, 2009 - Front Section

One of National Housing & Rehabilitation Association's (NH&RA) recipients of the sixth annual Vision Awards for lifetime achievement in affordable housing is Lisa Alberghini, president of the Planning Office for Urban Affairs, Inc.

The award was presented at a special evening awards reception on November 2nd at the Taj Hotel. The event is a part of NH&RA's annual Fall Forum, a two day conference that focuses on the latest developments in affordable housing, historic preservation, new market tax credits as well as green retrofitting of both existing and new buildings.

At the Planning Office for Urban Affairs since 2001, Alberghini has overseen the development of over 650 units of affordable housing and equity financing in excess of $170 million. Alberghini has more than 25 years of experience developing affordable housing including having spent 18 years at the Boston Office of Community Builders (as director of the office for the last three years) and has been an active leader and advocate for increasing resources for affordable housing development at both the State and Federal levels.
