

CELEBRATING
55 YEARS

nerej

Chambers named principal at NELSON

January 20, 2010 - Front Section

Stacy Chambers, formerly a principal of Black Cow Architects, have been named managing principal by NELSON following the "inverted merger" of the two companies.

Black Cow, architecture and interior design firm has focused on corporate commercial, industrial and retail. Chambers has been a principal with Black Cow since 2005. She is also vice president of education with IFMA Boston.

NELSON, headquartered in Philadelphia, was formed in 1977 and has 36 locations around the world and over 500 employees.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540