What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? As president of MMA I plan to help mortgage brokers unite. Those left in the industry are its backbone. They need to be kept informed, offer continuing education, keep them in compliance. I also plan to increase membership and have MMA interact with other groups, i.e., wholesale, investors, brokers, commercial realtors, credit groups and others.

Hobbies: Golf, reading, staying active

Favorite book: Mysteries in general

Person you admire most (outside of family): Denise Leonard

Key to success: Keep a good attitude

If you had to choose another vocation what would it be? Construction management or interior design
