Entrust Northeast expands operations to tristate area: New offices located in Stamford and N.Y.C.

March 04, 2010 - Connecticut

Entrust Northeast, LLC of Verona, N.J., has opened two new offices in the tristate area. The new Manhattan office is located at 245 Park Ave., 24th Floor, N.Y.C., and the Connecticut office is located at One Stamford Plaza, 263 Tresser Blvd., 9th Floor. The company offers its clients self-directed IRAs and 401(k) accounts with a focus on nontraditional investments. The Verona location remains the company's corporate headquarters and central processing location.

"Expansion of our company is very exciting," said Jaime Raskulinecz, Entrust Northeast CEO, "because it validates our success, especially in these economic times, and enables us to better serve our clients, prospects, and business associates."

Entrust Northeast, LLC is a professional third-party administrator of truly self-directed retirement plans. The company is one of the first and only area companies to enable investors to harness their IRA assets to purchase a wide array of nontraditional investments, such as real estate, notes and mortgages, private placements, accounts receivables, limited partnerships, hedge funds, gold, and other precious metals.
