Four architects at Saltonstall Architects certified LEED AP

March 11, 2010 - Spotlights

According to Saltonstall Architects, all of its four registered architects, William Saltonstall, Marc Betti, Mike Britton and C. Jay Wilbur are now certified as LEED Accredited Professionals. LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) professionals demonstrate a thorough understanding of green building practices and principles and the LEED Rating System. The LEED Green Building Rating System is the nationally accepted benchmark for the design, construction, and operations of high performance green buildings.

Saltonstall Architects designed and built one of the first LEED pilot homes in the south coast of Massachusetts and designed the LEED Gold certified Tabor Academy Math & Science Center in Marion.
