Durkee, Brown, Viveiros & Werenfels honored by Arts and Business Council of RI

March 10, 2010 - Rhode Island

Durkee, Brown, Viveiros & Werenfels Architects has been selected to receive a 2010 Encore Award in the Small Business category. Each year, the Arts and Business Council of R.I. "recognizes a small business owner or a small business with fewer than 100 employees for outstanding contributions and in-kind services to Rhode Island's arts and cultural community."

"Everyone at DBVW is thrilled to be recognized for our commitment to furthering the success of local arts organizations" said Emily Hall, DBVW's director of marketing and business development.

DBVW's client list includes some of Rhode Island's best-known cultural organizations such as AS220, Trinity Repertory Company, and the Sandra Feinstein-Gamm Theatre.
