Rizzo joins Colliers Meredith & Grew as assistant vice president in the suburban brokerage group

March 24, 2010 - Front Section

Leeanne Rizzo has joined Colliers Meredith & Grew as an assistant vice president in the suburban brokerage group, focusing on brokerage activities in the Rte. 128 Mass Pike market. She will work closely with executive vice president James Elcock and senior vice president John Carroll. Prior to joining the firm, Rizzo spent five years at FHO Partners.

"Leeanne brings a great real estate experience to Colliers Meredith & Grew," said Carroll. "We are very fortunate to have someone with her reputation and real estate aptitude on our team."

Rizzo earned a B.S. degree in Government from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

She is an active member of the Commercial Brokers Association and the National Association of Industrial & Office Properties.
