Stop & Shop names RHYS agent for two Bergen Cty. shop. ctrs.

April 21, 2010 - Retail

In its first important foray into the New Jersey marketplace, RHYS Commercial has been named exclusive leasing agent for two Stop & Shop retail centers in Bergen County.

The assignment brings the company's growing suburban shopping center portfolio to over 4.5 million s/f, according to RHYS president and CEO Cory Gubner, whose recently launched firm is now exclusive agent for over 80 commercial properties in the Tri-State marketplace.

The latest RHYS retail leasing assignment consists of Franklin Avenue Plaza, a 200,000 s/f shopping center anchored by a new Super Stop & Shop at the highly trafficked intersection of Godwin and Greenwood Aves. in Wyckoff and the 95,000 s/f Stop & Shop Plaza that overlooks I-287 at 816 Franklin Lakes Ave. in Franklin Lakes.

RHYS executive vice president and head of its retail services division, Dominick Musilli, together with colleague Michael Weiner, will serve as listing brokers for both properties.
