Waterstone Retail brings Market Basket to Brickyard Square

April 21, 2010 - Retail

According to Waterstone Retail, Market Basket has opened at Brickyard Square. The store, currently the largest in New Hampshire and second largest in the chain, will offer shoppers a wide variety of services including a bakery, deli, meat and seafood departments and a large selection of prepared foods along with beer and wine.

Market Basket is widely recognized for bringing substantial value to its shoppers. The Fortune 500 company based in Tewksbury, Mass. placed Top 10 in the 2009 Rankings of the Nation's Best Supermarket Chains by Consumer Reports.

"We are extremely proud to welcome Market Basket to Epping," said Josh Levy, managing member and principal of Waterstone Retail. "We've worked hard these last four years to bring exciting and convenient retail options to an area we believe represents tremendous growth opportunity." The intersection where the project is located is one of the busiest in New Hampshire with traffic counts of over 100,000 cars per day.

Targeted for completion by the fall of 2011, Brickyard Square is an open air shopping center located at the intersection of Rtes. 101 and 125. The 272,000 s/f project is set to include a popular mix of restaurants and specialty stores along with The O'Neil Brickyard 12 Cinema. The twelve screen theatre will feature all stadium seating and the latest in digital and 3D technology.

Waterstone Retail is a privately held real estate development, acquisition and management company specializing in the creation and repositioning of shopping centers throughout the U.S.
