ING opens 500,000 s/f HQ designed by SG&A

December 07, 2007 - Connecticut

Spagnolo Gisness & Associates, Inc. and ING recently celebrated ING's ribbon cutting ceremony at its innovative new 500,000 s/f New England headquarters. Governor Jodi Rell spoke at the event which officially opened the largest single office structure built in greater Hartford in two decades. "This project was the culmination of a tremendous effort that resulted in the creation of an extraordinary building on time and within budget," said SG&A founding principal, Al Spagnolo.
