Zottola joins Boston Realty Advisors as a residential sales associate in new office

June 17, 2010 - Front Section

Vivian Zottola has joined Boston Realty Advisors as a residential sales associate. In her new position, Zottola will be representing buyers and sellers working from the company's new office location at 745 Boylston St.

A native of the city, Zottola has lived, worked and studied in the area for over 20 years. She received an undergraduate degree in Economics from Suffolk University and graduate degree in Communications Management from Simmons College. Over the years she has witnessed much of the wonderful transformations and developments within the city and is the perfect person to guide any one relocating to the city.

Her past consulting experience and training in residential mortgage financing allows Zottola to bring a fresh and realistic perspective to problem solving for buyers and sellers in today's market place.
