Century Investment Co. signs five new leases in West Springfield and Palmer, Mass.

June 30, 2010 - Front Section

Century Investment Co. has signed on five new tenants for properties it owns and manages in West Springfield and Palmer, according to Andrew Cohen, owner and general manager.

IntegriScript, a Long Term Care pharmacy, has opened its newest production and administrative facility in 6,115 s/f at 95 Ashley Ave., West Springfield. The company is affiliated with Berkshire Health of Pittsfield.

Elsewhere in West Springfield, Lincare has leased 970 s/f of office at 181 Park Ave., part of the Century Park professional center. Lincare is a provider of respiratory care, infusion therapy and medical equipment to homebound patients, and is joined by a second new tenant at that address, Atty. James Kellam.

Two new tenants are also opening at Depot Plaza in Palmer. Vantage Sports and Rehab has opened in 2,150 s/f at the North Main St. center, soon to be followed by a 5,500 s/f clothing store operated by Goodwill Industries, relocating from elsewhere in town.
