TMS Architects awarded 2 design contracts

July 15, 2010 - Construction Design & Engineering

TMS Architects has been awarded 2 new design contracts.

TMS will provide architectural services for The Music Hall's new Music Loft at 131 Congress St. The Loft will include studio and classroom space and an 100 seat multipurpose café theatre. John Merkle, AIA, principal and Nicole Martineau, AIA, project architect will lead the design team.

TMS has been selected by the Salem Country Club to renovate and expand their clubhouse. The project will include renovating and expanding the Donald Ross Dining and Grill Rooms. The new layout will add 1,500 s/f and a new bar, lounge and several small group function areas.

Also, TMS collaborated on the newly designed exterior plaza space surrounding the bronze statue commemorating Bobby Orr's famous 1970 Stanley Cup winning goal. The statue is located at the TD Garden in Boston.
