Integrated Builders hires Carroll as chief estimator

August 05, 2010 - Front Section

Integrated Builders Inc., a construction management, design-build and general contracting firm, has hired that A. Michael Carroll as chief estimator.

In addition to providing estimates and costs analysis for Integrated Builders' clients, Carroll will also work closely with their clients' design-build team to discuss proposed projects and design an effective strategy to complete project review, including scheduling, business planning and value management/engineering.

"We're very excited to have Carroll join our team," said Jay Dacey, president of Integrated Builders. "His addition to the Integrated team is going to be great for both us and our clients. Carroll brings over 15 years of experience in budgeting, estimating, cost analysis and project management of construction projects in major sectors in Greater Boston."

Prior to joining Integrated Builders, Mr. Carroll served as an estimator, cost analyst and project manager at Waltham, MA-based Linbeck Construction where he worked on a number of projects for Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Tufts University, Biogen/IDEC and Fitchburg State College. Prior to Linbeck Construction, he worked as senior estimator at Boston-based Macomber Builders where he was responsible for estimating, including over 90 percent of all sitework on all Macomber projects, both public and private jobs. Prior to that, he worked as an estimator/project manager at Braintree, MA-based Peabody Construction Co., as a project engineer at the Littleton, MA-based Middlesex Corp., and as an estimator/assistant project manager at Hanover, MA-based P.A. Landers, Inc.

"I'm excited to join Integrated Builders, which has a great reputation in the industry for its quality work and reliable personnel," said Mr. Carroll. "I'm looking forward to working with the Integrated Builders team and our clients."

Mr. Carroll, a resident of Braintree, MA, is a graduate of Stonehill College and the University of Notre Dame, he also holds a Massachusetts Construction Supervisor License.
