JM Coull and Mangel Architects renovate Acton Medical Assoc. office

August 19, 2010 - Construction Design & Engineering

JM Coull completed the renovation and expansion of Acton Medical Associates, PC. The project doubled the size of the office, adding patient areas, laboratory space and exam rooms.

Acton Medical teamed with JM Coull and Mangel Architects. The building was occupied by other tenants throughout the fast-tracked seven week gut rehab, extensive advance planning was necessary to work out the logistics of material delivery and storage, utility shutdowns and other activities.
