Cool Polymers relocates headquarters to Quonset Business Park

August 25, 2010 - Spotlights

Cool Polymers has relocated its headquarters to a 40,000 s/f facility at 51 Circuit Dr. in the Quonset Business Park.

The engineered materials manufacturer was headquartered in a 25,000 s/f facility in Warwick.

Cool Polymers made the move due to 30% growth during the first half of 2010. The new location will allow the company room for growth to meet the needs of a growing customer base. The building will include the company's headquarters, research and development and production facilities.
