Acella Const. renovates 32 suites at BC Conte Forum

September 15, 2010 - Construction Design & Engineering

Acella Construction Corp. renovated 32 suites at Boston College's Alumni Stadium and Conte Forum.

"We're excited about our relationship with B.C. The work on the suites, was coordinated around final exam schedules, as well as Boston Colleges commencement and summer school activities, we ran on an aggressive schedule to maximize the short window of time we had available to complete this project," said Randy DiBartola, director of business development for Acella.

This project ran concurrently with another project Acella was awarded at B.C., the Wilson laboratory renovation.
