Become a member of CCIM's leadership board

September 22, 2010 - Front Section

Are you ready for some football!!!! When we hear that on Monday nights it reminds us that the summer is over and the kids are back to school and we can redirect ourselves to the opportunities that we have been putting off. Like...

- * Taking that last CCIM course you need to finally get your designation.
- * Taking the first CCIM course you need to start the process to get your designation.
- * Learn how to use the new CCIM REDEX on-line software program.
- * Learn how to use the CCIM Site to do Business (STDB), on-line.
- * Commit to attend just three CCIM networking events for 2011.

Whatever the opportunity, now is the time to make that resolution... why wait till New Years?

In November, my term as president will be ending and our new president Jeremy Cyrier will start his. I would like to remind all NE CCIM chapter members that now is the best time to get involved. To become a member of a leadership board you do not need to have your pin, unless noted. Anyone who is a member is welcome to take part in helping form the chapter.
