O'Neill of The Grossman Cos. brokers 4,828 s/f lease renewal

September 22, 2010 - Retail

Sporting goods and fitness equipment retailer Olympia Sports has renewed its lease for 4,828 s/f at Quincy Granite Place, a destination retail plaza at Burgin Pkwy., one block from historic Quincy Center.

Lease negotiations were handled by Frank O'Neill, broker for The Grossman Companies, Inc. of Quincy, who represented the landlord, 126 Granite Street Trust.

Anchored by TJ Maxx, Quincy Granite Place is also home to iParty, Dress Barn, Boston Market, Papa Gino's and Dunkin' Donuts. The 61,400 s/f center opened in 1995, services both a high-density residential and a large daytime office population as it is just minutes from Crown Colony Office Park and several other office complexes. The plaza, managed by The Grossman Companies, Inc., is 100% leased.

Based in Quincy, The Grossman Companies, Inc. offers a full range of brokerage services, with a focus on leasing and sales of commercial property throughout New England.
