WP Realty breaks ground on The Shops at Devon

September 22, 2010 - Retail

WP Realty, Inc. has recently broken ground on The Shops at Devon located on Lancaster Ave. The Shops at Devon is Phase II of Devon Village, the neighboring 80,000 s/f mixed-use development which is anchored by Whole Foods.

The Shops at Devon will consist of two buildings. Building #1 will be 3,300 s/f and is well suited for a restaurant. Building #2 will be 12,800 s/f and is designed for retail. The new project is interconnected to Devon Village and Whole Foods, and has access to a signalized intersection on Lancaster Ave.

Devon is located west of Philadelphia. The property is on Lancaster Ave. (Rte. 30), a east-west thoroughfare that extends from Philadelphia in the east to Lancaster in the west.

The project architect is Ignarri Lummis and the site contractor is Brubacher Excavating.

WP Realty, Inc. specializes in the acquisition, development, leasing and management of grocery-anchored centers located in the Northeastern and Mid Atlantic U.S.
