O'Neill of The Grossman Companies leases 4,828 s/f to Olympia Sports in Quincy

September 30, 2010 - Front Section

Sporting goods and fitness equipment retailer Olympia Sports has renewed its lease for 4,828 s/f at Quincy Granite Place, a destination retail plaza at Burgin Parkway, one block from Quincy Center. Lease negotiations were handled by Frank O'Neill, broker for The Grossman Companies, Inc., who represented the landlord, 126 Granite Street Trust.

Anchored by TJ Maxx, Quincy Granite Place is also home to iParty, Dress Barn, Boston Market, Papa Gino's and Dunkin Donuts. The 61,400 s/f center, opened in 1995, services both a high-density residential and a large daytime office population as it is just minutes from Crown Colony Office Park and several other office complexes. The plaza, managed by The Grossman Cos., is 100% leased.
