Pacheco, Anthony and O'Brien of Diversified Project Management earn designations

September 30, 2010 - Owners Developers & Managers

Diversified Project Management's project manager Heather Pacheco has become a member of the AIA. Project manager Benjamin Anthony has earned his LEED accreditation and assistant project manager Callie O'Brien has become certified as a Facilities Management Professional.

"We are proud to support and foster the professional development of all of our staff. It strengthens their knowledge and experience, promotes best practices, compliments the diversity of our organization and that benefits our clients," said Phil Leonard, DPM's vice president of operations. "We commend Heather, Ben and Callie for their hard work and congratulate them on their achievements."
