Berkeley Investments executes 5,192 s/f lease with Wellogic, Inc.

October 07, 2010 - Spotlights

Boston-based Berkeley Investments has executed a lease with Wellogic, Inc. for 5,192 s/f on the fifth floor at the Watch Factory Offices.

Formerly based in Cambridge, Wellogic was founded in 1992 and provides award-winning health information exchange, portal, and EHR/PHR solutions that help ensure quality care for nearly five million patients.

Berkeley Investments is now transforming the 400,000 s/f historic complex into a mix of offices, loft-style apartments and retail uses with riverfront amenities.

The Watch Factory is located less than two miles from the Mass. Tpke., less than three miles from Rte. 128/I-95 and within walking distance of the Waltham Commuter Rail Station on Moody St.

Berkeley Investments was represented by Eric Ekman, project manager, and Steven Brooks, vice president of asset management. Wellogic was represented by Dan Krysiak of Grubb and Ellis
