October 14, 2010 - Front Section

Unicorn Realty recently completed a lease for a new tenant at 155 Webster St.

BAMSI has signed a lease to operate from the 2,500 s/f unit in The Hanover Business Park, which is located at 145-155 Webster St. (Rte. 123). Denece Clinton of Unicorn Realty served as broker.

Brockton Area Multi-Services Inc. (BAMSI) has opened the doors of its Family Support Center at The Hanover Business Park, according to Barbara Duffy, vice president of community relations of the private non-profit human service organization dedicated to improving the quality of life and sense of self-worth for families throughout the state.

"We chose this location based on its proximity to the Route 3 corridor and its convenient access for people from Braintree to Plymouth," said Duffy.

"And it's fair to say that our experience working with Denece Clinton and the Unicorn Realty staff has been excellent; there is a real sense of partnership between Unicorn Realty and BAMSI."

"We are more than pleased to welcome BAMSI's Family Support Center as our most recent tenant at our Webster Street location in Hanover," said Brian Murphy, a principal at Unicorn Realty. "It is certain to be a wonderful addition to the property."

The Family Support Center, funded through the Massachusetts Department of Developmental Services, will serve as a hub to provide various programs and activities to families of children with developmental disabilities.
