Amper joins Capstone Properties as vice president of industrial division

November 10, 2010 - Rhode Island

According to Paul Griesinger and Chris Greenman of Capstone Properties, Neil Amper, SIOR has joined the firm as a vice president to direct Capstone's industrial division.

Amper has been a commercial real estate broker for 25 years with Rodman Real Estate, Inc. He is a member of the international commercial real association, The Society of Industrial and Commercial Realtors (SIOR). The organization has members though out the world and membership requires a standard of ethics and sales.

He has represented numerous national, regional and local clients in all phases of commercial real estate and has facilitated over 400 transactions.

Amper has authored a commercial real estate report for Rhode Island that has become a standard for the industry and is widely accepted and quoted. He has also been active in the local community serving on numerous non-profit boards as well as city boards.

He was a big brother for 7 years and served on the Big Brother advisory committee. He is a member of the Greater Providence Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors and a member of The Providence Foundation. He serves on the Cranston Juvenile Review Board and the Cranston Tax Review Board.

At Capstone Amper will continue to provide "The Capstone Commercial Report". It will be available for all clients and interested parties who want to receive the report.
