Cuttle presents Clarkin with emeritus CPM membership plaque; Gauvin of Northern Property Investment receives ARM certificate

November 10, 2010 - Rhode Island

Thomas Clarkin of Clarkin Real Estate and Clarkin Property Management, who has been a member of IREM since 1983, was presented the emeritus CPM membership plaque. Chapter president Bob Cuttle, CPM presented the plaque.

Emeritus status is an honorary status that recognizes members who have shown long-term commitment to IREM and its programs.

Clarkin has earned emeritus status because he has been a member for at least 25 years and has made outstanding contributions of personal time and effort at both the national and local levels. Specifically, Clarkin has served in a number of IREM positions, including chapter past president

Cindy Gauvin from Northern Property Investments was sworn in at the October meeting and received her Accredited Residential Management certificate.
