Jeffrey of Paragon Properties installed as Northern RI Board of Realtors president

November 10, 2010 - Rhode Island

Realtor Robert Jeffrey, along with members of the 2011 Northern Rhode Island Board of Realtors (NRIBR) leadership team, was installed as president at the annual meeting, installation and recognition night at Twin River Casino on October 27.

Realtor Jeffrey has been a member since 2003 and is the owner of Paragon Properties, LLC in Woonsocket.

In 2008 Jeffrey was the recipient of the board's Golden "R" Award for distinguished and unselfish service given while serving with outstanding leadership ability and vision and is the 2010 NRIBR Realtor of the Year.

As a member of the NRIBR he serves or has served on the grievance, education personnel, web, awards and finance committees.

President Jeffrey has been a member of the board of directors since 2006 and was treasurer for two years at which time he served as the finance committee chairperson.

On the Rhode Island Association of Realtors level, he will hold a seat on their board of directors and the executive committee. Jeffrey has been a member of the RIAR education committee for four years and is currently serving as the chairperson.

Also installed were president elect Debra Smith of Residential Properties LLC, Cumberland; vice president Linda Delach of Boucher Real Estate and directors Ryan Antrop of Gold Key Properties LLC, Joseph Luca of Residential Properties LLC, Cumberland, Denise Rogan Re/Max American Dream, Whitinsville, Mass., Karen Roy and David Serpa both of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, Cumberland.
