Flaherty and Hansen of Colliers Meredith & Grew represent Forest City in 53,401 s/f

December 16, 2010 - Front Section

Sanofi Pasteur has entered into a long-term lease extension with Thirty-Eight Sidney Street LP, a partnership between Forest City Enterprises and M.I.T., for 53,401 s/f at 38 Sidney St., located in University Park at MIT. Sanofi Pasteur will continue to occupy the top two floors of the five-story, 122,000 s/f laboratory research building.

Joe Flaherty and Tucker Hansen of Colliers Meredith & Grew represented the landlord, Forest City. Louis Kluger of Zell Partnership, Inc. represented Sanofi Pasteur in the transaction. Specifics of the lease extension were not disclosed.

University Park at MIT, developed by Forest City Enterprises, is a 27-acre, mixed-use urban campus located directly adjacent to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The Park has 2.3 million s/f of space including 10 research and office buildings, five residential complexes, 250,000 s/f of hotel, restaurant and retail space, structured parking for 2,700 cars, and acres of open parkland.

The 10 commercial buildings are occupied primarily by biotech/life science companies including such industry leaders as Millennium/Takeda, Novartis, Partners Healthcare, Sanofi Pasteur, Vertex, Genzyme, ARIAD and Aveo.

Sanofi Pasteur, the vaccines division of the sanofi-aventis Group, provided more than 1.6 billion doses of vaccine in 2009, making it possible to immunize more than 500 million people across the globe. A world leader in the vaccine industry, Sanofi Pasteur offers the broadest range of vaccines protecting against 20 infectious diseases.
