6 in the Shipyard becomes newest tenant at Hingham Shipyard

December 23, 2010 - Retail

6 in the Shipyard, Hingham Shipyard's newest tenant offers personalized and one-of-a-kind gift ideas for the holiday season. 6 in the Shipyard is a unique retailer featuring six local women-owned businesses from the South Shore. Denise Bruce, the owner of Camille's Closet, a fashion accessories store says, "The Shipyard is a perfect opportunity for me to team up with these five other entrepreneurial women to create one retail boutique featuring the distinctive merchandise from each of us."

In addition to Camille's Closet, 6 in the Shipyard includes:

Ash Tree Designs, offering hand-made items such as journals and notebooks, homemade jewelry, and wallets and bags made from recycled items.

Dock This Way featuring corporate and personal embroidery, and silkscreen services. With a complete line of "attitude" and "hot stuff" hats and bags, Dock This Way is designed for those who want to make a real fashion statement.

The Pink Poppy, specializing in custom accessories, personalized keepsakes and festive holiday gifts, all packaged in signature Pink Poppy style.

Sea Glass Photography, specializing in unique note cards, matted prints and framed photos created with authentic sea glass, china and assorted treasures.

Soul One.One 80 selling an array of relaxation items such as robes, wraps, organic soaps, soy candles and more. Also specializing unique pieces made from used furniture.

6 in the Shipyard is located at 18 Shipyard Dr., next to Hingham Beer Works. Hours are: Monday through Wednesday 10 a.m. - 7 p.m., Thursday through Saturday 10 a.m. - 9 p.m., and Sunday 11 a.m. - 6 p. m.
