Skanska USA breaks ground on $13 million HealthFirst Family Care Center; project team includes Steffian Bradley and Columbia Construction

January 20, 2011 - Construction Design & Engineering

Steffian Bradley Architects, HealthFirst Family Care, Columbia Construction and Skanska USA held a groundbreaking ceremony for the $13 million HealthFirst Family Care Center. Skanska USA is the project manager.

The project, will convert a 78,000 s/f industrial space into a non-profit community health center. The building will double the number of medical exam rooms from the existing HealthFirst facility on County St.

The project is due for completion in December, and is expected to create 50 jobs.
