What your firm does now and its plans for the future? Synergy Consultants was created to provide building commissioning services to building owner's and their consulting teams to deliver a building that is constructed to be maintained and operates at the intended level of performance. Synergy also applies its practical engineering knowledge to those buildings that have not lived up to their potential and with investigation have made corrections to where they performed as required. Our plans for the future are to continue to provide services to building owner's that will have their buildings perform in the future as they do at turnover.

Hobbies: Competitive sailing

Person(s) you most admire (outside of family): The folks that have served and are serving in our armed forces.

If you had to choose a different profession, what would it be? I like what I do because no two buildings are alike.
