Jeff Dow, president of Dow Realty, receives CCIM designation

February 17, 2011 - Connecticut

Jeff Dow, president of Dow Realty Company, has been awarded the distinguished CCIM Institute designation for achieving the highest level of education in the commercial real estate industry. This designation is held by only 6% of the estimated 150,000 commercial real estate professionals nationwide. It signifies a dedication to the highest levels of technical proficiency and business ethics in commercial real estate.

An affiliate of the National Association of Realtors, the CCIM Institute's recognized curriculum, powerful technology tools, and networking programs impact and influence the commercial real estate industry. The CCIM designation is awarded to commercial real estate professionals upon successful completion of a graduate-level education curriculum and presentation of a portfolio of qualifying experience. The curriculum addresses financial analysis, market analysis, user decision analysis, and investment analysis, the cornerstones of commercial investment real estate. CCIMs are recognized experts in commercial real estate brokerage, leasing, asset management, valuation, and investment analysis.
