Rhode Island chapter of Appraisal Institute offering overview April 18th-19th

March 10, 2011 - Appraisal & Consulting

The Rhode Island Chapter of the Appraisal Institute will be offering the two day Appraisal Curriculum Overview (15 Hours), on April 18th and April 19th. This offering will be at the Radisson Hotel (Airport) in Warwick, R.I.

The Appraisal Curriculum Overview is a relatively new requirement established by the Appraisal Institute for residential designated (SRA, RM) and residential associate members must attend the first day of the Appraisal Curriculum Overview (8 Hours). Residential designated and associate members are welcome to attend the second day to receive the full 15 credit hours. (RI - MA) The second day activities will address general designated (MAISRPA, SREA) and general associate must attend the first and second day of the Appraisal Curriculum Overview (15 Hours).

The instructor for both days will be Joseph Magdziarz, MAI, SRA, president of the Appraisal Institute.

Upon completion of the first day of instruction (April 18th) a cocktail hour with hors d'oeuvres is planned (further information to follow) with an update presentation by the Appraisal Institute president regarding our professional input on improving the economy.

Registration information can be attained from the Rhode Island Chapter executive secretary Elsie John at 401-433-6985 or ejohn4@cox.net. More details on the course will be forthcoming but AI Members (designated/associate) should plan to take advantage of this local offering as it is a requirement.

William McGovern, SRA, is president, Rhode Island Chapter of the Appraisal Institute.
